Disclaimer: I don't actually know Japanese, all translations were done with Google Translate and 90% gut feeling, so sorry if most of it is wrong.

This is my first project and I was just doing it for myself so it's probably pretty bad overall, but I decided to share it.

If the original group or some other group wants to upload a new scanlation, please do.

TL notes:
A "nekogami" is a cat god.

Kuro calls Yuta in katakana, which is like a phonetic representation of his name, while his parents called him in kanji. (Name meant "big cellebration", roughly, might have been a pun ¯_(ツ)_/¯.)
